

When considering the NAB's Petition 04-160, please remember our first amendment right to the freedom of speech and how this directly violates that right. In addition to that this is a competitors market and in a capitoist society those with the best product wins. XM is offering a service that is unlike anything we have used in the past and this is the future. Please do not take this away from us.

Thank you.

Jonathan A. Patton